About the LIFE Charity Concert "I Have a Lot!"

Competition, self-worth, recognition, acceptance, love, life.

Three young individuals from very disparate backgrounds converge in this musical drama, a heartfelt portrayal of issues familiar to youths in Singapore.

Dramatic scenes, poignant songs, a spectacular set, music and word play come together to bring make this one riveting performance.

Staged by IGNUYE, the youth ministry of Trinity Christian Centre, this contemplative musical drama aims to leave in its viewer, a strong conviction that there is reason for living.

Beneficiary:
 The Straits Times School
 Pocket Money Fund

The LIFE Charity Concert seeks to raise funds for The Straits Times School Pocket Money Fund.

The Straits Times School Pocket Money Fund was initiated on 1 October 2000 by The Straits Times, to heighten public awareness of the plight of children from low-income families who were attending school without proper breakfast, or pocket money to sustain their day in school.

The aim is to alleviate the financial burden faced by parents in providing for their children's education. At the same time the funds will help children who are already facing difficulties in remaining in school to stay on.
